HONGKONG, NOVEMBER 10th, 1913.

SINCE the dawn of the present century considerable progress has been made within the wide-flung dominions of the British Empire towards the goal of Imperial Federation, but we are still far removed from the final solution of the problem, and the working out of this solution is destined to involve great changes in the Government of the Empire. Mr. Borden, the Prime Minister of Canada, has recently been emphasising the contention that the autonomy of Canada is still incomplete in so far as "in foreign affairs—our relations with other countries whether peaceful, commercial, financial or otherwise—we may have no more voice than the people of Japan." To remedy this grievance, which, by the way, seems to be greatly exaggerated by Mr. Borden, he advocates representation on the Committee of Imperial Defence as the next step forward, but again declared that it could not be the "final solution." That would only be reached when, ultimately, British subjects living in the Dominions obtained as "potent a voice in the government and guidance" of the Empire as British subjects living in Britain. In this "equality of status" would lie "the highest future of the Dominion." In saying that Mr. Borden exaggerates the disabilities under which the Dominion suffers in foreign affairs, we are supported by the organ of the Colonial Institute, which says that in respect of "commercial" and "financial" policy the Dominion is already its own master. That has been so, in fact, for many years past, and as one instance in proof we may refer to the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation concluded between Great Britain and Japan in 1894. By Article XIX, the right was reserved to the larger Colonies to accept the stipulations in the Treaty or refuse them, and it was not, in fact, until 1906 that the stipulations of the Treaty were made applicable to Canada by special agreement. That is one notable instance in which Canada has had a determining voice in its foreign affairs, where its commercial, financial and to some extent its political interests were concerned. We do not suppose this case to be exceptional. But there remains the general liability to entanglement in foreign complications, and Mr. Borden would meet it by acquiring for Canadians individually a definite, constitutional share in the control of the central Imperial Government, equal to the share of the people in Britain individually. His conception is that of a uniform Imperial citizenship. Sir WILFRED LAURENCE's alternative conception is uniformity of national rights, in the sense that the Government of Canada should have the same control over its own foreign relations as the Government of Britain already enjoys. When that is accomplished, his argument would run, the King's subjects in Canada will enjoy full equality with the King's subjects in Britain. As United Empire points out, one practical defect of this conception is that by declining the idea of systematic consultation Sir WILFRED LAURENCE, in contrast to the Australian statesmen, seems indifferent to the need of continuously harmonising and co-ordinating the policies of the King's several Governments, which is the meaning of Imperial unity. A way out of this impasse is offered by Mr. HARCOURT's dispatch of last December inviting the Dominions to send representatives who could regularly attend the meetings of the Defence Committee, while to any Minister deputed for the purpose free access to the Prime Minister and Foreign Secretary was promised. In this way a Dominion Government might be kept continuously informed and advised in regard to all technical matters of defence, while by means of private consultation with the heads of the British Government it can make its wishes or intentions felt in the domain of foreign affairs. While this far from satisfactory Colonial aspirations, it is as much as can well be conceded for the present, but the time must come as the Colonies increase in wealth and power and bear a larger burden of the imperial responsibilities when the Imperial Government must become a government in which all parts of the Empire are represented.

BRITISH BYE-ELECTIONS.

LIBERAL DEFEAT AT READING.

LONDON, November 9th.

The election at Reading (necessitated by the appointment of Sir Rufus Isaacs as Lord Chief Justice) resulted as follows:—

Wilson (U.)	5,143
Gooch (L.)	4,013
Butler (Soc.)	1,063

[The figures at the last election were: Sir Rufus Isaacs (L.), 5,094; Capt. L. O. Wilson (U.), 4,095.]

LIBERAL MAJORITY AT LINLITHGOW REDUCED.

The result of the election at Linlithgow, to fill the vacancy created by the appointment of the Rt. Hon. Mr. A. Ure, K.C., as President of the Scottish Court of Session is as follows:—

Pratt (L.)	5,616
Kidd (U.)	5,094

[The figures at the last election were: Mr. Ure, 5,835; Mr. Kidd, 3,765—Majority 2,070.]

"THE UNIONIST A WINNER BY 1,500 VOTES."

The Marquis of Linlithgow, speaking at Linlithgow, said there were 2,000 Nationalists in the constituency. Therefore the Unionist was the winner by 1,500 votes so far as the constituency was Scottish. It was impossible for the Government to avoid a general election much longer, because it was evident that the people did not want Home Rule.

The Westminster Gazette says an appeal was issued by the Labour party at Linlithgow to their adherents to vote for Mr. Kidd, hence the increase in the Unionist figures.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE'S LAND CAMPAIGN.

THE THIRD INSTALLMENT.

LONDON, November 9th.

Mr. Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking at Middlesbrough, unfolded the third instalment of his Land Campaign, dealing specially with the urban districts. He dwelt upon the scandalous overcrowding of workmen's dwellings and said it was intended to give the municipalities power to acquire land easily at a fair price, robbing neither the landlord nor the taxpayer. The scheme involved quick transit facilities, and it was proposed that the Imperial Government should take a larger share of certain public services, including education, in order to abate the hindrance of high rates. It would also deal with the evils of the leasehold system. The first step would be a national survey of the whole housing accommodation of the island. The only people who did not seem to realise what had happened were the landlords, but the Government policy would be driven relentlessly to its destination. Excitement at Middlesbrough was divided between the visit of Mr. Lloyd George and that of the Oldham Athletic Football team, the latter seeming to be regarded as the most important.

Mr. Lloyd George DENOUNCES MILITANCY. LONDON, November 8th. Mr. Lloyd George, receiving Suffragist deputations at Middlesbrough, denounced militancy, which, he declared, had upset the majority in Parliament in favour of the Suffrage. He repudiated the idea that the Suffragist Cabinet Ministers were resigning.

"THE IRON HAND IN PEKING."

LONDON PRESS OPINIONS.

LONDON, November 8th.

The Times, in a special article headed "The Iron Hand in Peking," discussing the dissolution of the Kuomintang, says it puts an end to the immediate prospect of representative institutions in China, though evidence exists that the Chinese are weary of political adventures and that Yuan Shih-kai's assertion of an effective dictatorship, however unconstitutional, would be generally approved. The President's political attitude is strongly reminiscent of the statecraft of the Marquis Ito and the Elders of Japan. He would not have ventured upon his present course unless he was convinced that he was backed by the great weight of public opinion in China. If his life is spared he may be expected to govern China much as President Diaz governed Mexico.

The Morning Post says that Yuan Shih-kai is restoring a system of government obviously suited to the needs and genius of China. The masses doubtless believed there was some magic in the name "Republic," but have now been thoroughly disillusioned. All they want now is to be left in peace, and they will probably conclude that Yuan Shih-kai is more capable of giving them this than any Parliament. Doubtless if China is to survive she urgently needs order and honest administration. The President has already shown his power in establishing and controlling an efficient administration, and if he can do for China what, as Viceroy, he did for the Metropolitan Province he may yet save the country from the dangers besetting her.

AUSTRIA AND CANADIAN EMIGRATION.

VIENNA, November 8th.

The Reporter of the Committee which has investigated the Canadian-Pacific Railway Company's emigration business in Austria, in outlining before the Reichsrath the shipping policy of the Monarchy, remarked that the Government had granted the Canadian-Pacific Company a concession for the purpose of diverting emigration from North German ports to Trieste. He spoke highly of the Canadian-Pacific, and emphasised that the latter only shipped 12,000, as against 172,000 by the German pool, who employed the same tactics as the Canadian-Pacific. He regretted that the Government policy rendered the subsistence of a great part of the population impossible.

Mr. Pierson has left Yunnan for Hongkong, but his ultimate destination is unknown.

CORRESPONDENCE.

DENTISTRY IN HONGKONG.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS."] Hongkong, 7th November.

SIR,—With reference to my correspondence of 17th May, which appeared in your paper regarding quack dentistry in Hongkong, and the $500 damages and costs in the decision given yesterday by Justice Kemp in the Supreme Court against a quack dentist for having done serious injury to a patient, don't you think it is about time that someone took up the matter with a view to getting an Ordinance passed, imposing certain restrictions regarding the practice of dentistry here, and requiring dentists to be registered, the Government charging a certain fee for registration? Thus the revenue would be benefited to a small extent; $25 for each registration would not be too much, and I believe the Medical Board charges this amount. The case referred to is one of the very many which have come to light, and the amount of injury daily inflicted on ignorant people by the quacks is unknown to the public. If the Officer Administering the Government would help in passing such an Ordinance it would be a blessing to the public.—Yours faithfully,

ANTI-QUACK DENTISTS.

Sir M. M. Bhownaggee has presented to the London School of Tropical Medicine a medal to be competed for annually in memory of the late Dr. Cawas Lalcaea.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

On a Bank Holiday in Hongkong one thoughts naturally turn nowadays to golf. In former days the cricket match on the H.K.C.C. was about the only diversion, apart from the time-honoured picnic and walk on the hills. Now golf claims its devotees by the score, and the Hongkong Golf Club's links at Fanling, Happy Valley and Deep Water Bay, not to mention also the U.S.K.C. links at Kowloon, will be thronged with people of both sexes swatting and pursuing the little rubber ball. On the notice board of a Liverpool Golf Club someone recently posted the following original description of the game:—

Swat the ball and walk a mile.
Swat the ball it's worth your while;
Walk a mile and swat the ball,
Walk some more. Nor is that all.
Swat the ball and walk—what then?
Swat the ball and walk again.
After that you walk and—what?
After again the ball you swat.
Swat the ball and walk still more,
Keep on swatting as before;
When as far as this you've got,
Swat and walk, then walk and swat.

The author of these lines would seem to agree with the definition of golf as "a good walk spoilt," but the man or woman who once falls under the influence is seldom persuaded that the definition is correct.

I have just been dipping into a new book entitled "The Tour of a Socialist Round the World." The tour included a visit to Hongkong. The traveller has nothing very original to say about the Colony in the three pages he devotes to it; but in the interests of weary globe-trotters the attention of the powers that be may be called to the following paragraph:—

The weary globe-trotter has little opportunity for rest at Hongkong; although it is hilly and tiring there are no seats about worthy of the name—the unworthy are a few large blocks of stone like old English tombstones; but no doubt if there were portable seats the "honest" Chinaman would carry them away bodily, or take a part of them by way of a "squeeze" for firewood.

Where did this weary globe-trotter come across those stone seats like old English tombstones? The upper levels are not ill-provided with seats worthy of the name, but I am unable to locate the stone seats.

A correspondent draws my attention to letters in a Shanghai paper complaining of the state of the roads in the Model Settlement, and suggests that such complaints could never—no, never—have been possible in the days of certain ex-Presidents of the Shanghai Municipal Council who have since come to Hongkong—and occasionally become eloquent about the "disgraceful state of the roads" here. I can only say that I am sorry to learn that the roads of Shanghai are in such a deplorable condition just now, especially as our Director of Public Works is paying the "Model Settlement" a short visit and is doubtless on the look-out for "tips" about road-making.

Then, again, I had thought that the British Post Office at Shanghai was a model which the G.P.O. in Hongkong might copy with advantage. Whenever a Siberian mail reaches Shanghai some such official notice as the following appears in the Shanghai papers:—

The London mails of such and such a date, ex S.M.R.S. Kobe Maru were received at the British Post Office at 7.55 a.m. yesterday, and delivery of letters to boxholders began at 10 a.m.

These notices have led me to suggest in this column once or twice that they do these things better in Shanghai than in Hongkong, and when I saw in the D.P. a day or two ago the announcement that the Postmaster-General had gone to Shanghai on official business, I rejoiced to think of the benefits which would accrue to Hongkong from the introduction here of the methods adopted in Shanghai to secure prompt sorting and delivery of mails. But, alas! I fear that in this respect also Shanghai is no better off—perhaps rather worse—than Hongkong, for I observe that a correspondent who lives seven minutes from the British Post Office writes to the papers to say that the Siberian mail last week was delivered at his residence twenty-six hours after arrival, and the N.C. Daily News mentions another case of a mail arriving at 7.55 a.m. and not being delivered until 4 p.m., although colics were waiting to take it at the Post Office, and when it did come it was incomplete. "The whole question of the Siberian mail in the hands of the British authorities," adds the N.C. Daily News, "has long stood in need of vigorous reformation." Thus am I disillusioned!

By the way, who now controls the British Post Offices in the Treaty ports—the Imperial Government or the Hongkong Government? It will be remembered that owing to the loss incurred to Hongkong in respect of the British Post Offices in China, the Imperial Government was induced a few years ago to shoulder this burden, and the Hongkong Government was relieved of all responsibility. Quite recently I have heard it stated that this arrangement has undergone some modification, and that these offices are again under the control of the Postmaster-General of Hongkong, though the Government has no official responsibility. I have seen no official announcement on the subject.

CANTON NOTES.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, November 7th.
THE PAPER CURRENCY.

The Administration Office is in receipt of a wire from the Central Government notifying that, as the salt gabelle is different from other taxes, in that it is pledged as security for the Foreign Loan, all collections in future of that tax must be made in silver coins. The Civil Administrator, in his reply, states that the paper currency of Kwangtung, which owing to the Government not being able to re-establish the Exchanging Bureau, had already depreciated in value to the extent of 24-25 per cent., has suffered, during the last few days, a further discount of 1-2 per cent. of its market value as a result of the rumoured news that it would not be accepted in payment of the salt tax. Under the circumstances, he adds, it is absolutely impossible to carry out the Central Government's proposal, which would only create an alarming financial situation in Kwangtung.

The Tuhui yesterday notified the commanders of all the regiments and all offices having connection with military affairs, that henceforth every soldier should be paid in the proportion of 80 per cent. Canton notes and 20 per cent. subsidiary coins, and not all in notes as has hitherto been the case.

ARMY CREDENTIALS.

At the suggestion of Vice-Commissioner Lung, the Tuhui has also issued an order to the same commanders and military departments directing that, in order to prevent any possible trouble that might ensue between the village defence brigades and the soldiers that are so frequently sent from Canton and transferred from place to place for the suppression of brigandage (which, by the way, shows no signs of diminishing) through misunderstanding, and in order to put a stop to brigands disguising themselves as soldiers, a credential (specimen of which has been drawn up by Vice-Commissioner Lung) shall be issued by the commanding officer each time a regiment or company or corps of soldiers is transferred or dispatched from their headquarters. Before entering the place of their destination, the credential is to be produced by one of the officers for the perusal of the defence brigade.

MR. CHEUNG PAT SEE ENTERTAINED.
Mr. Cheung Pat See, the Honorary President of the Tung Yat Tang (Unionist Party), who returned to Canton a few days ago, was entertained by the chairman of the local branch of his "Tang" to dinner on board the Kong Tin boat. The guests included Vice-Commissioner Lung, the Chief of Police, and the Chief Councillor of the Tuhui's Yamen.

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

The Government Gazette announces that H.E. the Officer Administering the Government has been pleased to make the following appointments:—

Mr. A. F. Churchill to act as Director of Public Works during the absence on leave of the Hon. Mr. William Chatham, C.M.G.

Mr. R. E. Lindsell to act as 1st Assistant to Secretary for Chinese Affairs and as Deputy Registrar of Marriages.

Mr. N. L. Smith to act as 2nd Assistant to Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

HARMSTON'S CIRCUS.

The popularity of circuses and like entertainments may falter and wane, but Harmston's never. That it stands as well now in public favour as ever it did in its long and noteworthy career is an eloquent tribute to the peculiar happiness of the management in keeping their turns up-to-date and original. No more enthusiastic or appreciative house could be desired than that which pleased the hearts of the artists on Saturday night, when the large marquee was quite filled, in spite of the unpromising weather. All the items were good, but mention of more than passing nature must be made of the triple wire act by Miss Jennie, W. Harmston, and Master C. Bruce. The evolutions of these three on the tight wire were astounding. It was really an acrobatic performance which would demand quite a deal of skill on terra firma. Only a master of the art of wire-walking could turn a somersault or jump over an obstruction three feet high and land back on the wire without turning as much as a hair, and this was the star hit of the evening. The clown interludes were particularly funny, and kept the audience in constant merriment. The marble statue act by the Cottrells was another new and most popular item on the bill of fare.

There will be a complete change of programme to-night, and in addition to the efforts of the artistes belonging to the circus, Private Moyle, of the D.C.L.I., described as the Featherweight Amateur Champion Weight-lifter, will make an attempt to break the world's professional record for his weight.

VISIT OF ARCHBISHOP HARTY OF MANILA.

By special invitation, His Grace the Most Rev. J. Hartly, Archbishop of Manila, gave an address to the members of St. Joseph's College Association in the Hall of the College yesterday. His Lordship Bishop Pozzoni presided, and there were also present Father de Maria, Father Pratt, Brother Adrian (Director of the College), several priests from the Italian Mission and Spanish Procurator; Major Bowen, Messrs. J. M. E. Machado, G. E. Yvanovitch, J. P. Braga (Hon. Secretary), and A. Edwards.

In introducing the Archbishop, Bishop Pozzoni said:—Within a month to the very day of the formation of the St. Joseph's College Association, I have the honour of presiding at the second of your gatherings. The honour is all the greater to-day because you are so fortunate as to secure the goodwill and the presence of His Grace the Archbishop of Manila, to deliver an address under the auspices of your Association. I am sure you will appreciate his kindness all the more when you are told, as I know, that his Grace had given instructions to say "No" to any invitation to him to speak publicly or to deliver any sermon. Archbishop Hartly had been enjoined to obtain perfect rest. Anticipating your feeling, and as one of the patrons of the St. Joseph's College Association, I wish to thank his Grace most cordially for honouring us with an address this morning. (Applause.)

Archbishop Hartly, after stating that he took great pleasure in breaking the "rule of silence" which he had been advised to observe, said that he had been under a Christian Brothers' School for six years, and had to go through the same system of education as the boys at the St. Joseph's College. The Brothers had four words for their system of education, namely—downright, upright, outright, and all-right. By the word downright, he meant that the institution of the Christian Brothers was implanted on the rock of Peter, and the Brothers were sent out into all parts of the world. They had established a splendid School in the Philippines, the staff of which which was recruited from Hongkong, Ireland, Paris, New York, and Chicago. Then for uprightness he would point to the example of "Uncle Sam," who, with all the shrewdness attributed to him, had selected an old Brothers' Institute boy as Commissioner of Finance for the United States. For outrightness, the boys were taught to be open and frank, and to conceal nothing. When they had those three words implanted in their minds, then the boys were "all right." (Applause.)

A vote of thanks was accorded to his Grace on the motion of Major Bowen.

FOREIGN-STYLE CLOTHING IN CHINA.

The American Consul-General George E. Anderson of Hongkong states in a recent report that while there was a notable turning to foreign-style clothing of many kinds shortly after the revolution in China there has been more or less reaction since, and the exact future of trade in all lines of foreign-style clothing at present is somewhat doubtful. On the whole the indications are that foreign-style clothing will be preferred by the student class and the smart young Chinese of both sexes, but especially men, all the time and by the Chinese generally during the colder months of the year, while clothing in modified Chinese style will be more common for the latter in the warmer seasons. There is greatly increased demand for all kinds of foreign clothing accessories and haberdashery in South China ports, not only for the Chinese but for the increasing consumption of such goods by foreigners. Much of this demand is being met by local factories, and it is likely that as the demand increases local concerns will prepare for taking up an even greater proportion of the trade. In some lines of haberdashery, however, the demand is increasing and local manufacturers cannot compete with foreign products.

Is a harmless and efficient remedy against all diseases of the respiratory organs, especially WHOOPING COUGH, CATARRH OF LARYNX, ACUTE AND CHRONIC BRONCHIAL CATARRH, ASTHMA, &c., which has been recognised unequalled by the highest authorities. Also the AFFECTIONS OF THE LUNGS will be greatly relieved by the use of it.

D.C.L.I. SPORTS.

INTERESTING RACING AT HAPPY VALLEY.

The three days' sports meeting of the D.C.L.I. concluded at Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon, the finals of the various championships and other events being reserved until then. There was plenty of good racing, though the times recorded were not exceptional, because the runners who won the chief events were not forced. This was very obvious in the open mile, when that well-known long-distance runner, Lee-Corpl. Moses, came home such a long way ahead of the next man that it was really no race at all. Moses got in front at the start and gradually forged ahead, maintaining the same long, raking stride throughout. Lee-Corpl. Williams always had the hurdles well in hand, because every other competitor upset the fences. In the between events, also, there was a big spacio between the leaders. However, these things apart, the sport provided was quite good, and being interspersed with spectacular events and side-shows, constituted a most enjoyable programme. There was an accomplished display of physical training in a Army system, and the dainty fortune-teller, along with the serio-comic Academy, a cocoanut shiver, and general fun of the fair atmosphere, all helped to create the animated spirit of carnival. The attendance was large and representative, and at the conclusion of the day's programme the prizes were handed to the winners by Mrs. Stericker, wife of Capt. Stericker, who was the painstaking hon. secretary of the meeting. Details of the racing are as follow:—

U.S. TRADE WITH THE FAR EAST.

The completed returns of the fiscal year ending with June, says the Journal of the American Asiatic Association, show a decrease of about $2,400,000 in the sum of our Asiatic exports, while the imports show an increase of $81,000,000. The decrease in exports is more than accounted for by the falling off in our sales to China and Hongkong, which amounted for the year to $32,870,603, or $3,600,000 less than for the preceding year. Japan, on the other hand, shows an increase of $4,300,000 in the volume of our exports, the total for the year being $57,741,815, while imports from Japan have increased from $80,607,469 to $91,633,240. The exports to British India, which were showing a rapid rate of increase, have retrograded during last fiscal year amounting to $15,108,058, against $18,757,692 the year before. But in this case also the imports show a decided increase, having reached the figure of $116,178,182 against $93,252,523 in the fiscal year 1912. Our imports from the Philippine Islands are $2,000,000 less than they were last year, but the exports have increased from $23,736,133 to $25,384,793. Of this latter amount, $5,777,278 was in cotton cloths, or nearly $200,000 more than the sum of our exports of the same class of goods to China.

CORINTHIAN YACHT CLUB.

THE OPENING CRUISE.

Under atmospheric conditions which were by no means ideal for good sailing, the fleet of the sun being tempered only by a very light breeze, the opening cruise of the Hongkong Corinthian Yacht Club took place yesterday. Those who joined the cruise for purely picnic reasons could not have chosen a more enjoyable day; not a cloud flecked the blue of the sky. The water was in good condition for motor boat racing. There was just a pleasant ruffle to the surface, but the yachtsmen would have been much more happy had the breeze been possessed of more power. As a consequence, the times recorded reveal nothing sensational, but seeing that the peaceful conditions called for dexterous management of sails, those times which were set up cannot be considered wholly unsatisfactory. The entries were good, several competitors giving in their names on the cruise, and the various events were always interesting to the large gathering of spectators. The officials were:—Commander, Dr. F. Clark; Vice-Commander, Mr. G. G. Wood; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. E. T. H. Bunje; Hon. Sec., Mr. D. K. Blair; Hon. Asst. Sec., Mr. E. J. Edwards; Official Messengers, Messrs. C. J. Cooke and W. O. Lambert; Unofficial Members, Messrs. J. Reidie, M. Melver, A. Rodger, E. F. Gibson, J. Spittles, and A. Burn. Judges, Messrs. A. Rodger, and C. D. J. Bell. Clerks of the Course, Messrs. J. H. Irving, A. J. Cooke, and A. W. Van Andel. Sailing boat handicappers, Messrs. G. G. Wood, W. Glyn, D. K. Blair, M. Melver, C. D. J. Bell and C. J. Cooke. Motor-boat handicappers, Messrs. A. Burn, C. J. Cooke, and A. W. Van Andel. Starters, Messrs. E. F. Gibson and M. Melver. Timekeepers, Messrs. G. W. Avenell, F. Howell, and E. T. H. Bunje. Stewards, Messrs. J. Spittles, A. W. Van Andel, C. H. Davis, A. E. Dunrich, and F. E. G. Orchard. The course was Lyceum Beacon, Mark Boat, and Channel rocks on the starboard. Details:—

BOOKS FOR SAILORS.

AUSTRALIAN NAVIGATION BILL PROVISIONS.

The Melbourne correspondent of The Standard writes:—The granting of the Royal Assent to the Federal Navigation Bill has been received with surprise. The explanation is that it was so difficult to make the bill meet the objections of the Board of Trade that it had either to be accepted or rejected. The Imperial Government hesitates long before vetoing a bill passed by the Commonwealth Parliament, though they have the constitutional power to do so. Therefore it has been accepted. Present ministers here are not very pleased that the Royal Assent has been given because the Bill is full of experimental theories in the "new protection." The bill was ten years before the Parliament gathering clauses in each session.

Fantastic notions, such as giving the crew access to the saloon library on passenger ships, were inserted in the bill in the last Parliament by the labour party. It is doubtful whether many clauses of the bill can be administered. The significant part of the bill is the part which insists on overseas vessels trading between Australian ports conforming to the same conditions of labour and paying the same rates of wages as the local Australian vessels. Rates are higher on the coastal ships than on those trading overseas. This means that the overseas ships may not carry passengers or cargo between Fremantle and Sydney, unless they pay the same rates as are paid on coastal vessels. This may not make much difference to the big companies, as the Australian ships already do most of this trade. It will affect the German line more than the mail steamers.

HONGKONG CLUB v. REST OF LEAGUE.

This annual match commenced on the Hongkong Cricket Ground on Saturday, and will be continued to-day. The Rest of the League went to the wickets first, and batted nearly the whole of the afternoon for a couple of hundred, to which Captain Matthews and Lieutenant Pym were the chief contributors. The former sent the ball to the boundary on seven occasions, and the last-named registered five 4's. Hongkong fared disastrously before Wickett and De Rome at the start of their innings, but Moore and Clark stopped the rot in a measure by careful batting. Much will depend upon these two players and the brothers Hancock to-day. Scores and analysis:—

HONGKONG LEAGUE—DIVISION I.

R.G.A. DEFEATS HONGKONG CLUB.

The Club lost on Saturday—lost handsomely—and lost to a better team. All the scoring was on the one side, but let none who missed witnessing the match think for a moment that all the smartness, the pretty passing, and the robust play was confined to this one side, or that all the play was around the Club custodian. It was not so by any means; indeed, it is not too much to say that, considering the fairly large score against him, Goldenberg had comparatively an easy time of it. Midfield play dominated throughout the game, with the Royal Artillery holding the leading cards in each department, and if they did not run up a long tally of goals it was purely and simply because they were up against an opposition totally different from any they had been used to. They had of necessity always practised against Service men, and nine-tenths of league engagements must be in the same category, so that the revised conditions were far from getting going. Indeed, 39 of the 55 minutes in the first half had sped before Goldenberg had to admit defeat. All the carefully planned attacks of the R.G.A. were nonplussed by someone wearing a Club shirt putting himself in the way and diverting or stopping well-meant efforts. Not necessarily with a wonderful amount of science—for two or three of the civilians did not possess sufficient of that commodity to hurt them—but with a "get-there" spirit which on occasion does more good and is far more demoralising to the opposition. The game itself does not require a very great amount of description. It was just an ordinary game, with the R.G.A., after they had once opened their account, scoring at intervals. This is how the rivals of many seasons faced each other:—

Club:—A. Goldenberg; Stalker and MacDonald; Ridden, Long and Brown; Goodman, Briggs, Pennell, I. Goldenberg and Walker.

R.G.A.:—Moore; Court and Langford; Bart, Richards and Townsend; Driver, Crane, Green, Dolman and Finchard.

Mr. F. W. Eager was the referee. Within thirteen seconds of the kick-off Stalker and MacDonald were falling over each other in defence of their goal. The R.G.A. had adopted their usual opening moves and had almost got through. But Ridden came along with his little lot, and between them all the danger was removed. With the siege rased the defenders took heart of grace and transferred operations to the other end, where Court and Langford were soon in difficulties. They could not for quite a long time get to "savy" the methods of the "Old Boys," which were so unlike the regulation attacks of their Service brothers. And this was, in the writer's honest opinion, the main factor which kept the score at nil for practically the whole of the first half. So much has been written and so much more has been said about the inferiority of the civilians as compared with the R.G.A., R.E. and D.C.L.I., and indeed, of the futility of the Club pitting itself against the uniformed element that more than one of the "wearers of the white" seemed to show by the way they shaped at the outset that they had caught the infection and that it would be a presumption to play up to the gunners. But once the illusion had been dispelled, and the military idols had been shown to have feet of clay, the play became more open and even. Ridden and Long played like heroes from beginning to end. The gunners could not respond to the cries of their supporters until three minutes from the interval, when after a few short, incisive passes a volley from Crane, beat Goldenberg.

Straight away from the centre kick came Crane again, and number two was on the record against the townsmen. Naturally, Crane was exhorted by his Lyceum chums during the interval to get on with the "hat trick," and he very soon obliged. To be precise, it took fifteen minutes to complete the sequence, and then it came about through good football work by Green. He rubbed shoulders with Ridden in a delightful bout of good, honest, English charging, which some referees unfortunately are afraid to allow, and, getting possession, he tipped the well-worn sphere to Crane so that the desired triple-event was his.

One more came before the finish, and Green got it. He nipped through between the backs, and getting the ball again the Club goal fell for a fourth and last time. If anyone had a suspicion of "offside" coming in here they can be excused, for it was a very near thing, with the benefit of the doubt going with the verdict. Of the gunners, Court was not quite so firm as Langford at back, Richards and Townsend were a little better than Burt in the middle line, and Green and Crane were the luminaries of the vanguard. All did well together, and the experience against an unusual defence will be all the better for them.

For the Club, Pennell carried the brunt of the attack on his own shoulders and carried it with credit to himself. The strength of the side lay most certainly in the half-back division, where all three worked like Trojans, Ridden, Long, and Brown being a very happy way of naming them as to merit. Stalker had a better grip of the game than MacDonald, but both put in all they knew.

Finally, it can be summed up as a clean, forceful game, albeit it was amateurish in parts to a degree. One point worth recording is that only one free kick was given throughout the game and that was for a very milk-and-watery push.

WIRELESS ADVANCE.

600-FOOT STEEL MASTS FOR MARCONI LONG-RANGE.

Shareholders were well represented at the extraordinary meeting of Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Company, held at the Hotel Metropole, London, on October 3rd, Mr. Marconi presiding.

The whole of the proceedings only occupied 15 minutes, but in that period was crowded an interesting and exhaustive statement by Mr. Godfrey Isaacs as to the agreement between the Goldschmidt and Marconi companies. This was so satisfactory to those present that the resolution proposed from the chair, and seconded by Mr. Godfrey Isaacs, approving the creation of 500,000 new shares of £1 each, was carried without dissent or discussion.

The most important declaration was: "That all the shares in the Goldschmidt previously held in Germany have now passed into the hands of the Marconi company," and that "the arrangement concluded provided that in the event of the Goldschmidt machine proving the better the British nation will benefit under it without extra cost and without any extra risk."

A Daily Chronicle representative learns that important developments in the direction of extension of the Marconi Company's operations are impending, quite apart from the work which is being undertaken on behalf of the Government. Two new long-distance stations are to be erected, one at Sheffield, in Great Britain, and the other at Buenos Ayres, South America. In connection with these, and with the new long-distance wireless service they are to provide, 18 enormous steel masts are to be erected, each of which will be 600 feet in height. It will be seen at once that this extension will offer just the facilities required for the most severe tests both of the Marconi and Goldschmidt machines.

TRADE OF HONGKONG.

The following details relating to the progress of the trade of Hongkong have been taken from the fortnightly circular of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce:

OPPIUM.

The opium stocks, according to the statistics supplied by the Superintendent of Imports and Exports, were as follows on November 6th:—Patna 1,385 chests, Benares 607, Malwa 1,811, and Persian and Turkish 473. Reports on Bengal unrefined opium show that the stocks on the same date were 30 of Patna and 37 of Benares, and the amount boiled for local consumption was 30 of Patna and 15 of Benares, including one chest of Persian, which was boiled G.O.F. for local consumption. The Bengal market has been very quiet and only a few chests of Benares have been done. Quotations are:—Patna New $5,225, Old $5,700, and V. Old $5,300. Benares New $5,225, Old $5,350, and V. Old $5,275. Malwa—Very moderate sales were effected during the earlier part of the interval at $4,750 for New to 4 years, $4,800 for 5 to 6 years and $4,850 for oldest drug.

EXPORTS.

Export business, according to the report of the Association of Exporters and Dealers of Hongkong, continues to be almost insubstantial. Feathers are unchanged since last advice, and the business in Ginger is also unchanged and quiet. There is no stock of Galangal. The market for Cassia Oil is steady at quotations. "Market on the weak side" is the comment on Star Aniseed Oil, but Star Aniseed has improved. There is a good native consumption, and the market closes firm. In wood oil, and soy, the market is strong. Human hair is fairly quiet. Only a few sales are reported, though a number of inquiries are circulating. There is no business in tin, and the same excuse is offered:—"Prices being far too high compared with values for Straits Tin." No sales of Saigon Cassia Oil reported, but a few hundred pounds of gall nuts have been disposed of at $28. Bristles Black C. are stronger, but no sales are reported of the other grades.

IMPORTS.

The cotton yarn market has ruled very quiet and only small sales were effected in favourite and scarce spinings. Values have recorded $1 to $2 per bale, but the market in Bombay remains fairly steady. Quotations are:—No. 10s at $106 to $132, No. 12s at $116 to $134, No. 16s at $120 to $143, No. 20s at $129 to $155. Arrivals 10,500 bales, sales 2,000 bales, shipments nil. Unsold stock 24,000 bales, bargains 55,000 bales.

Woolens.—Market quiet. Weather continues hot for this time of the year, and consequently local demand has not set in to any extent. Market for blankets is good. There have been some small sales.

Raw cotton shows no change, and the sales have been nil.

In metals sales are reported of Steel Bars as low as 140/-cwt. Wire Nails have been done in fair quantities, at lower figures. Prices locally have firmed up a little. Lead is strong and parcels on the spot are held for higher prices. Tinplates and Wire Nails are weak. There seems to be better tone in the market, however, for most metal lines. Yellow metal is quiet.

There have been no changes in petroleum products prices. The deliveries are about nominal and the market is strong.

Coal prices for next year delivery are advancing. The sugar market is quiet, there being a moderate business at slightly easier rates.

Business in saltpeetre is steady and advancing. There are 500 bags in stock and 400 have been sold.

The flour market report states that the American market has ruled very strong for the past two weeks, more particularly in Blue Stem Cut Off and Patents, straight flour remaining unchanged. Practically no business is reported, however, and it is impossible to obtain space earlier than January shipment. The Australian market remains unchanged and no sales are reported.

Locally clearances have been fair and sales of flour to arrive good. Prices have advanced a few cents, but it is very hard to effect sales at the increased prices asked by holders of cargo. Stocks are about 700,000 sacks, and new cargo is just commencing to arrive freely. Quotations:—Patents M. $2.40 to $2.55 per bag, Cut Off M. $2.19 to $2.22 per bag, Straight M. $2.15 to $2.18 per bag, Seconds M. $2.07 to $2.10 per bag.

CANTON SALT TRADE.

The report of Messrs. H. Dent & Co. shows that the stocks are exhausted. There has been a fortnight of spasmodic buying at gradually declining prices. A good business for America is noticeable, especially towards the end of the period under review. The market closes with a tendency to decline, but Chinese holders show considerable firmness in the face of the rather general disposition in Europe to abstain from purchases. Waste is distinctly lower, although the parity of dollar prices still remains much above what buyers are willing to pay. Quotations with laying down cost at 4 m/s Dec. Ex: St. 2/0½, Fra. 2/3 and 6 m/s 1/c 6/5½.

BRIDE CHOSEN BY DOCTORS.

A remarkable experiment will take place in New York shortly, when a young man and woman will be chosen by a jury of doctors and married with the idea of mating as nearly perfect a couple as can be obtained, and watching the eugenic sequel.

The committee, on which are the names of Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, has been formed to select physicians, and notices will shortly be sent broadcast for healthy young men and women to apply.

When two examples of robust humanity have been selected, says the London Daily Telegraph's correspondent, the couple will be introduced, and, if agreeable, they will be joined in wedlock. A fund of $200 is being raised to further the idea, of which $100 will be given to the bride and groom after the eugenic marriage is performed, and the other $100 will be theirs when the first child is born.

THE FREIGHT MARKET.

Messrs. Lamko & Roggo in their freight circular dated 8th November, say:—

Since issue of our last report dated the 25th ult., the freight market has shown very little change and, although rates in some directions have fluctuated somewhat, chartering has been greatly restricted owing to the decreased offerings of prompt tonnage.

The North reports that conditions on the Coast have remained much the same state. There are a few orders for trip charters, principally coal, but the same severity of tonnage prevails and charterers will not raise their rates sufficiently to tempt owners to consider their offers.

Saigon-Hongkong.—The local rice market improved considerably during the earlier part of the fortnight, chiefly on account of Japan buying up considerable quantities of rice locally, and a few settlements Saigon to Hongkong have come to pass at the enhanced rates of 27/28 cents per picul.

Though there was further demand for small sized vessels at 20 cents, prompt tonnage was not procurable and charterers had therefore to consider larger carriers, which resulted in the fixture of a Japanese steamer of about 70/75,000 piculs carrying capacity, on a lumpsum basis; the rate therefore works out at between 19 and 20 cents per picul.

In spite of this, the rate again advanced to 27 cents, but the local rice market having declined, nothing better than 25 cents is offering at the moment.

Rice exports from Saigon during this season amount to total 397,392 tons as compared with 502,496 tons during the same period last year. Quotation stands for November shipment $4.50 per picul against $3.38 for corresponding period last year.

Saigon-Philippines.—No fresh chartering has been effected and none is expected in the near future. The price for Saigon rice in Manila has dropped considerably and as a matter of fact Philippine buyers have been in the market for tonnage to Hongkong with a view to resell some parcels of rice contracted for some time ago.

Saigon-Java and Outward.—A few settlements are reported, but further Japanese tonnage offering for November-December landing at from 35 cents down to 30 cents per picul could not be placed.

Bangkok-Hongkong.—The abundance of tonnage available for loading at Bangkok in the very near future has weakened the market and freights have been adversely affected. With a declining market locally rates are now down to 40 cents per picul for landing inside the bar, and 33 cents per picul outside the bar respectively.

To carry salt from Samyah Bay to Canton another vessel was taken up at the rate of $4.55 per ton.

Newchwang.—Again only a solitary fixture has been done during the interval on same terms as last.

Timecharter.—The present requirements for vessels on timecharter seem to have been filled. Fixtures reported:—Japanese str. Polperro 1,901 tons net reg. Timecharter 5 months at $9,000 per month.

Coal freights from Japan to this have slightly improved, but for December loading a decline in the rate is anticipated. Fixtures reported:—Mojito-Haiphong, private terms; Moji-Hongkong $1.60, Wakamatsu-Hongkong $1.70, Hongkong-Canton $3, Hongkong-Hongkong $2.75, Hongkong-Singapore $4.75 per ton.

Sail tonnage loading or to load. For Baltimore and New York:—British barque Daylight, 3,590 tons net reg., September-November loading.

British barque Drumeltan, 1,820 tons net reg., September-November loading.

British barque Brilliant, 3,000 tons net reg., January loading.

The following are the Settlements reported:—British str. Telemachus, 1,340 net reg., Saigon to Hongkong, 27 cents per picul.

British str. Hangchow, 900 net reg., Saigon to Hongkong, 28 cents per picul.

Japanese str. Tanaka Maru No. 6, 2,119 net reg., Saigon to Hongkong, $14,500 lumpsum.

British str. Kamsang, 1,401 net reg., Saigon to 1 pt. N. C. Java combined 2 or 3 months, private terms.

Japanese str. O.S.K. Saigon 1st opt. 2/3 p/c N. C. Java (2,000 tons), 30, 31 and 32 cents per picul.

British str. B. & S. Newchwang, Dabry and Chefoo to Canton (part cargo), 37 cents per picul.

British str. Kanva, 1,143 net reg., Sam Yeh Bay to Canton, $4.55 per ton.

Japanese str. Polperro, 1,961 net reg., Timecharter 5 months, $9,000 per month.

Norwegian str. Erviken, 1,344 net reg., Moji to Haiphong, private terms.
